A WIN WOULD...

- » Give the Panthers their first ACC win since February 1, 2018.
- » Be the Panthers third win against the Cardinals in the all-time series.
- » Be the 3rd road win of the season for the Panthers and first in ACC play.
- » Give Pitt 80 victories against ACC schools in program history.
- » Be the 10th win of the season for the Panthers, marking last seasons win total.

LAST TIME OUT...

- » The Panthers (9-11, 0-6 ACC) used a 11-0 run in the third quarter to tie the game but the Virginia Cavaliers ran away late in the quarter to secure the 74-57 win on Thursday night.
- » For the second straight game, the Panthers saw three players score in double figures as they combined for 47 of the Panthers 57 points in the loss.
- » Senior Danielle Garven led the way on Thursday night as she netted 19 points and five assists while going 9-for-12 from the floor. 17 of her 19 points came in the second half.

- » Sophomore center Cara Judkins had a career night in the loss as she netted a career-best 18 points, three rebounds and two blocks while going 8-for-14 from the floor.
- » As a team, the Panthers held the slim 34-32 edge in rebounds and the 34-24 lead in points in the paint.

STORYLINES

- » The game against #4 Louisville on Sunday marks the fourth game against a ranked ACC opponent through seven ACC games for the Panthers this season.
- » The Panthers are looking to avoid their first-ever 0-7 start in ACC play since joining the conference in 2013-14.
- » One of the keys during Panther victories this season has been winning the battle in the paint as they own a 9-3 record this year when out-scoring opponents inside and a 0-8 mark when not doing so.

LOOKING AHEAD...

- » Pitt will return home on Thursday night as they welcome the Virginia Tech Hokies to the Petersen Events Center for a 7:00 pm tip.
- » After the Virginia Tech game, Pitt will return to the road for a pair of games as they head to Duke on Feb. 3 and Georgia Tech on Feb. 7.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING

Sue Semrau, Florida State head women's basketball coach (1997-present)

- "Lance has played an integral part in building our program to this point. He is not only a great teacher, but also a strong connector. Pittsburgh is getting a tremendous person who cares deeply about his own family in addition to his basketball family. It has been 15 amazing years coaching with Lance, and we wish him nothing but the best."

Marsha Sharp, Texas Tech head women's basketball coach (1982-2006)

- "I think this is a win-win for the University of Pittsburgh and also for Lance. I think he is going to bring an incredible amount of energy and a great work ethic to his job every single day. He is a person who connects people and makes them feel like they're a part of his programs. I'm so excited for him and his family for this opportunity. I told him that he had been preparing his entire career for this day and how excited I am for him that it's here and what a great job I know he's going to do. I have great confidence in him."

Lance White was introduced as the ninth head coach of Pitt women's basketball in program history on Thursday, April 19, 2018.

White comes to Pitt after spending the past 15 years at Florida State, where he helped the Seminoles to a 350-145 (.707) record, including 12 seasons with 20 or more wins.

During his final season at Florida State (2017-18), the Seminoles posted 25 or more wins for the fourth consecutive season, finishing with a 26-7 overall record and averaged the second-most points in a season in program history with 81.0 points per game. It was just the second time FSU averaged 80 or more points per game in a season. The team ranked in the Top 20 nationally in field goal percentage (20th), offensive rebounds per game (16th), rebound margin (sixth), rebounds per game (11th), scoring margin (10th) and scoring offense (13th). The Seminoles led the ACC in rebounding offense (42.8), rebounding margin (+10.0) and offensive rebounding percentage (41.4 percent).

During his time at FSU, 10 players were selected in the WNBA Draft, eight earned ACC All-Defensive team honors and 37 earned all-conference awards. He helped the Florida State reach the NCAA Tournament in 13 of the past 14 years, while the team won at least one NCAA Tournament game in its past 15 appearances.

For his standout coaching efforts during the 2016-17 season, White was named the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) National Assistant Coach of the Year.

During his time in Tallahassee, White helped FSU reach new levels of success and brought an infectious energy to the program. He directed the Seminole defense and offense during his tenure in addition to being one of the country's top recruiters.

Florida State captured back-to-back regular season ACC co-titles in 2010 and 2011, and advanced to the 2010 NCAA Tournament Elite Eight. After serving as assistant coach for the first nine seasons in Tallahassee, White was promoted to associate head coach prior to the 2012-13 campaign.

Prior to Florida State, White spent 11 seasons at Texas Tech, including five years as an assistant coach with the Lady Raiders' top-10 program under legendary head coach Marsha Sharp. With White on staff, Texas Tech won three Big 12 championships and advanced to seven consecutive NCAA Tournaments, including five Sweet 16 and two Elite Eight appearances. He was a student assistant on Tech's 1993 national championship team and a graduate assistant coach for two seasons before being elevated to a full-time coach in 1998.

While in Lubbock, White worked with some of the best players the game has ever seen, including National Player of the Year and three-time WNBA MVP Sheryl Swoopes as well as Plenette Pierson, who was named 2007 WNBA Sixth Woman of the Year.

A 1996 graduate of Texas Tech, White earned his bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science. He went on to receive a master's degree in sports administration in August 1998. He attended Lubbock Christian University for three semesters before transferring to Texas Tech in January 1993.

As a high school athlete in Spur, he was a three-time All-District selection, two-time All-Region, and two-time third team all-state choice in basketball. His high school basketball and football teams advanced to the regional round both his junior and senior years. In addition to his football and basketball accolades, he was listed in the Spalding Top 100 tennis players in 1991.

He is married to the former Melanie Smith. The Whites are the proud parents of Quentin and Vivian.
